

LIBERTY A Magazine of Religious Freedom

Dear Friends of Religious Liberty:

The freedom to choose, freedom of conscience, is at the foundation of God's kingdom and goes to the heart of the three angel's messages. This freedom is especially under attack in our world today. We are now living in a time in which fear of terrorism and calamity collide with freedom. Because of this, we would like to invite you to participate in a project that will actively promote the view of religious liberty that this country and the world so desperately needs.

Liberty Magazine is determined to reach not only the leadership of this country, but all of those in the nation's capital with the vital issue of religious liberty. And of course this message is the very heart of the gospel of the kingdom. Our plan is to hold a public program in the historic DAR Constitution Hall, just across from the White House. The September 8, 2007, event will be titled "For God and Country." It will by short presentations and musical items lay out our blessings of religious freedom in this country and the enabling role of the Biblical and historically proven separation of church and state. It is the closest Saturday night to September 11 and the last chance before the 2008 electioneering to emphasize Liberty without political implications. This is a window of opportunity not seen since the days of A.T. Jones, the early champion of religious liberty for the Seventh-day Adventist Church, who spoke before the United States Congress on the issue of Sunday legislation.

Religious freedom is, of course, tied directly to the calling of the Seventh-day Adventist Church to proclaim the everlasting gospel. Detailed below is how you can help us communicate our unique perspective of religious liberty as part of the everlasting gospel.

TOTAL PROJECT COST: $250,000 BREAKDOWN OF FUNDS:1) The mailing to Liberty's subscription list of 200,000 booklets of the influential sermon by A.T. Jones: "What is Patriotism in the United States." $78,000 2) Religious Liberty symposium in Constitution Hall (4000 seating capacity) including required personnel and programming. $79,000. 3) Feature advertisements in Washington Post and Washington Times to promote the above event. $49,000. 4) Paid announcements on radio and television. $49,000. 5) Targeted invitations mailed to government officials and others of influence. $5,000.

As God moves on your heart, would you pray for this project and give to support it, in thanksgiving for how He has blessed us with freedom? Please make checks payable to "Liberty Magazine," and indicate "God and Country" account on the check memo. All funds are to be mailed to: Pat Horst, Assistant Treasurer, North American Division, 12501 Old Columbia Pike Road, Silver Spring, MD 20904-6600.
